- 2.1 The Barrister provides the Services requested by the Solicitor on the terms set out in these Conditions and subject to his professional obligations under the Code.

- 2.2 These Conditions (other than this clause 2.2) may be varied if, but only if, expressly agreed by the Parties in writing (including by email).
- 2.3 By instructing the Barrister to provide further Services in relation to the Case, the Solicitor accepts these Conditions in relation to those further Services, as well as in relation to the Services which the Barrister is initially instructed to provide.
- 2.4 These Conditions do not apply in the following circumstances:
- 2.4.1 the Barrister is paid directly (a) by the Legal Services Commission, through the Community Legal Service or the Criminal Defence Service or (b) by the Crown Prosecution Service; or
- 2.4.2 the Barrister has entered into a Conditional Fee Agreement in relation to the Case that does not specifically incorporate these Conditions.
- 2.5 Nothing in these Conditions nor any variation referred to in clause 2.2 shall operate so as to conflict with the Barrister's duty under the Code or with the Solicitor's duty under the SRA Code.

3. THE INSTRUCTIONS TO THE BARRISTER

- 3.1 The Solicitor must ensure the Instructions delivered to the Barrister are adequate to supply him with the information and documents reasonably required and in reasonably sufficient time for him to provide the Services requested.
- 3.2 The Solicitor must respond promptly to any requests for further information or instructions made by the Barrister.
- 3.3 The Solicitor must inform the Barrister immediately if there is reason to believe that any information or document provided to the Barrister is not true and accurate.
- 3.4 Where the Solicitor requires the Barrister to perform all or any part of the Services urgently the Solicitor must ensure that:
- 3.4.1 all relevant Instructions are clearly marked "Urgent"; and
- 3.4.2 at the time the Instructions are delivered the Barrister is informed in clear and unambiguous terms of the timescale within which the Services are required and the reason for the urgency.
- 3.5 The Solicitor must inform the Barrister within a reasonable time if the Case is settled or otherwise concluded.

4. RECEIPT AND ACCEPTANCE OF THE INSTRUCTIONS

- 4.1 Upon receipt of the Instructions, the Barrister will within a reasonable time review the Instructions and inform the Solicitor whether or not he accepts the Instructions.
- 4.2 The Barrister may accept or refuse the Instructions in the circumstances and for the reasons set out in paragraphs 601 to 607 of the Code and the Barrister incurs no liability if he refuses any Instructions in accordance with the Code.

assistance to carry out any necessary customer due diligence including (if required to do so) consenting to the Barrister relying upon the Solicitor under Regulation 17 of the Money Laundering Regulations 2007.

- 5.2 The Barrister owes the same duty of confidentiality to other lay clients, and will therefore not disclose or make use of any information that might be given to him in confidence in relation to any other matter without the consent of his other lay client, even if it is material to providing the Services.
- 5.3 Unless the Solicitor expressly informs the Barrister to the contrary in advance in writing, the Barrister may allow the Instructions to be reviewed by another barrister or by a pupil (including a vacation pupil or mini-pupil) in chambers, on terms that that other barrister or pupil complies with clause 5.1.
- 5.4 Subject to his obligation under clause 5.1, the Barrister may make and retain copies of the Instructions and any written material produced by him.
- 5.5 To the extent such information is already in the public domain, the Barrister may disclose in his marketing and similar materials, and to prospective clients and publishers of legal directories that he is or has been instructed by the Solicitor and/or for the Lay Client and the nature of the Case. To the extent any such information is not already in the public domain, the Barrister may only refer to it for marketing purposes in a form which sufficiently preserves the Lay Client's privilege and confidentiality and (where the law so requires) with the Lay Client's consent.

6. ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION

- 6.1 Unless otherwise directed by the Solicitor, the Barrister may correspond by means of electronic mail, the parties agreeing hereby:

- 6.1.1 to accept the risks of using electronic mail, including but not limited to the risks of viruses, interception and unauthorised access; and

- 8.3 The Barrister may delegate the provision of any part of the Services but will remain responsible for the acts, omissions, defaults or negligence of any delegate as if they were the acts, omissions, defaults or negligence of the Barrister.
- 8.4 The Barrister will, in addition, provide all information reasonably required to enable the Lay Client and/or Solicitor to assess what costs have been incurred and to obtain and enforce any order or agreement to pay costs against any third party.

9. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

- 9.1 All copyright and other intellectual property rights of whatever nature in or attaching to the product of the Services, including all documents, reports, written advice or other materials provided by the Barrister to the Solicitor or the Lay Client belong to and remain with the Barrister. The Solicitor and the Lay Client have the right and licence to use the product of the Services for the particular Case and the particular purpose for which they are prepared. If the Solicitor or the Lay Client wishes to use copies of the product of the Services for purposes other than those for which they are prepared, this will require the express written permission of the Barrister. The moral rights of the Barrister in respect of the product of the Services are asserted.

- 10.2 Nothing in Clause 10.1 shall operate so as to exclude liability where such exclusion is prohibited by law.

11. FEES

- 11.1 The fee for the Services shall in all cases comply with paragraph 405 of the Code and will be calculated as agreed between the Barrister (or his clerk on his behalf) and the Solicitor, whether prospectively or retrospectively.
- 11.2 The Barrister may agree to provide the Services for a fixed fee or may agree to provide the Services on the basis of an agreed hourly rate or on such other basis as may from time to time be agreed. If an hourly rate is agreed:
 - 11.2.1 the agreed hourly rate will be subject to reasonable periodic review by the Barrister, and in addition may be reviewed by the Barrister to reflect any reasonably significant changes in his status or seniority;
 - 11.2.2 any variation of the agreed hourly rate and the date on which it shall take effect shall be agreed with the Solicitor, and in default of agreement the Barrister shall be entitled to treat the Agreement as having been terminated by the Solicitor, subject to the Barrister's obligations under paragraph 610 of the Code.
- 11.3 If no fee or hourly rate is agreed, then the Barrister is entitled to charge a reasonable fee for the Services having regard to all relevant circumstances.
- 11.4 The fee for the Barrister's Services is exclusive of any applicable Value Added Tax (or any tax of a similar nature), which shall be added to the fee at the appropriate rate.

- 12.3 The Invoice must set out an itemised description of:

- 12.3.1 the Services provided by the Barrister and the fees charged;
- 12.3.2 any disbursements incurred and the cost thereof; and
- 12.3.3 VAT (or any tax of a similar nature), if any.
- 12.4 The Solicitor must pay the Invoice within 30 days of delivery, time being of the essence, whether or not the Solicitor has been put in funds by the Lay Client. The Invoice must be paid without any set-off (whether by reason of a complaint made or dispute with the Barrister or otherwise), and without any deduction or withholding on account of any taxes or other charges.
- 12.5 Where the Barrister has delivered a fee note, on request by the Solicitor the Barrister will deliver a VAT invoice following receipt of payment.
- 12.6 If the Invoice remains outstanding more than 30 days from the date of delivery, the Barrister is entitled:
 - 12.6.1 to the fixed sum and interest in accordance with the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998;
 - 12.6.2 to sue the Solicitor for payment; and
 - 12.6.3 subject to the Barrister's obligations to the Court and under paragraph 610 of the Code, to refrain from doing any further work on the Case unless payment for that further work is made in advance.
- 12.7 The Barrister and the Solicitor may agree in writing to refer any dispute which arises over the Barrister's fees to the Voluntary Joint Tribunal on Barristers' Fees, in accordance with Annex T2 to the Code. If the Voluntary Joint Tribunal's award remains unpaid in whole or part for more than 30 days, the Barrister shall be entitled:
 - 12.7.1 to refer the matter to the Chairman of the General Council of the Bar and the Rules relating to the List of Defaulting Solicitors shall thereafter apply; and/or
 - 12.7.2 to sue the Solicitor to enforce any award.
- 12.8 If any judgment against the Solicitor in respect of the Barrister's fees remains unpaid for more than 30 days, in addition to any other steps he may take to enforce the judgment, the Barrister may refer the matter to the Chairman of the General Council of the Bar and the Rules relating to the List of Defaulting Solicitors shall thereafter apply.

Comment [A2]: We are currently considering whether Annexes T2-4 should be part of the code of conduct or whether it might be appropriate for them to sit somewhere else, for example on the Bar Council website.

13. TERMINATION

- 13.1 The Solicitor may terminate the Agreement by giving notice to the Barrister in writing at any time.
- 13.2 The Agreement will terminate automatically as soon as the Barrister is under an obligation pursuant to Part VI of the Code or otherwise to withdraw from the Case or to cease to act and has complied with any requirements of the Code in so doing.
- 13.3 The Barrister may terminate the Agreement by written notice when he is entitled pursuant to Paragraphs 608 to 610 of the Code or otherwise to withdraw from the Case or cease to act and has complied with any requirements of the Code in so doing.

13.4 For the avoidance of doubt, termination of the Agreement, whether under this clause or otherwise, does not affect or prejudice any accrued liabilities, rights or remedies of the parties under the Agreement.

14. WAIVER

14.1 Except where expressly stated, nothing done or not done by the Barrister or the Solicitor constitutes a waiver of that party's rights under the Agreement.

15. SEVERABILITY

15.1 If any provision of these Conditions is found by a competent court or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the other provisions of these Conditions which will remain in full force and effect.

15.2 If any provision of these Conditions is found to be invalid or unenforceable but would be valid or enforceable if some part of the provision were deleted, the provision in question will apply with such deletions as may be necessary to make it valid and enforceable.

16. EXCLUSION OF RIGHTS OF THIRD PARTIES

16.1 This Agreement governs the rights and obligations of the Barrister and the Solicitor towards each other and confers no benefit upon any third party (including the Lay Client). The ability of third parties to enforce any rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 is hereby excluded.

17. ENTIRE AGREEMENT
