QUALIFICATION ARRANGEMENTS

- 5. Applicants who seek a Conveyancing Certificate must demonstrate that they meet the knowledge, skills and experience criteria in accordance with the knowledge, skills and experience guidelines which appear at Annex 1 and the portfolio guidelines which appear at Annex 2 and the competency framework at Annex 3.
- 6. An application must be made on such form as may be prescribed for the purpose by CILEx Regulation and shall be accompanied by such fees as may be fixed by CILEx Regulation from time to time.
- 7. CILEx Regulation will consider the application to ensure it meets the criteria set out in the knowledge, skills and experience guidelines which appear at Annex 1 and the portfolio guidelines and assessment criteria which appear at Annex 2.
- 8. The portfolios which form part of the application will be sent to an external advisor for assessment. The external advisor will assess whether the portfolios meet the knowledge, skills and experience guidelines and the portfolio guidelines and assessment criteria at Annexes 1 and 2.

9. Where the external advisor finds that the portfolios are satisfactory and meet the knowledge, skills and experience guidelines and the portfolio guidelines and assessment criteria at Annexes 1 and 2, the CILEx Regulation Officer will consider the application. The Officer will consider whether the applicant may be granted a Conveyancing Certificate. In reaching their decision, the Officer will consider all the information provided by the applicant and may call for further information from any person or source it considers appropriate. Where the Officer has any doubt as to the suitability of the applicant they may request additional information from the applicant and/or refer the application to the Admissions and Licensing Committee for decision.
10. Where the external advisor decides that the portfolios do not meet the knowledge, skills and experience guidelines and the portfolio guidelines and assessment criteria at Annexes 1 and 2 they will give reasons for their decision. The Officer will inform the applicant of the decision. The applicant may withdraw their application, amend and re-submit their application or make further representation and ask that the full application be referred to the Admissions and Licensing Committee to consider.
11. The Admissions and Licensing Committee will decide whether or not an application should be approved. In reaching its decision, the Committee will consider all the information provided by the applicant, and may call the applicant for interview or call for further information from any person or source it considers appropriate.
12. The committee may:
 - Approve the application;
 - Decide that the applicant does not meet the criteria and indicate which of the criteria the applicant does not meet.
13. In making any assessment or decision required by these Rules, the Admissions and Licensing Committee shall have regard to the knowledge, skills and experience guidelines and the portfolio guidelines and assessment criteria at Annexes 1 and 2.

14. The Officer will notify an applicant of their decision or the decision of the Admissions and Licensing Committee.
15. Where the application has been approved, the notification shall include the Conveyancing Certificate.
16. Where the application is unsuccessful, the notification shall set out the Committee's reasons and any pre-conditions to the consideration of any subsequent application. Where an application is unsuccessful, the applicant may apply for reconsideration in accordance with the Admissions and Licensing Committee Rules.

PRACTICE MANAGEMENT AND ACCOUNTS

17. A Conveyancing Practitioner who seeks to practise in an entity seeking regulation by CILEx Regulation must demonstrate that they meet the knowledge, skills and experience in accounts and practice management in accordance with the knowledge, skills and experience guidelines and portfolio guidelines and the competency frameworks which appear at Annexes 4 and 5. They will not be authorised to be an Approved Manager in an entity until these requirements are met.
18. Where an applicant relies upon existing experience they must complete a log in accordance the portfolio guidelines. An applicant who relies upon a qualification as evidence of meeting the competency framework must provide details of that qualification and assessment. CILEx Regulation will consider whether the experience or qualification relied upon demonstrates that the applicant meets the requirements of the competency framework.

19. An applicant who does not meet the knowledge, skills and experience requirements for practice management and or accounts must complete qualification courses and assessment in those areas which meet the competency frameworks at Annexes 4 and 5.

ADMISSIONS AND LICENSING COMMITTEE

20. The Admissions and Licensing Committee established under the Admissions and Licensing Committee Rules shall be responsible for the reserved Instrument rights qualification scheme.

EXTERNAL ADVISORS

21. CILEx Regulation shall appoint external advisors to advise CILEx Regulation and the Admissions and Licensing Committee on issues relating to reserved instrument practice rights.

CONVEYANCING PRACTITIONER

22. An applicant who has been awarded a Conveyancing Certificate will be known as a Conveyancing Practitioner.

CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT (CPD)

23. Conveyancing Practitioners will be required to undertake Continuing Professional Development (CPD) in accordance with the CPD Regulations issued by CILEx Regulation from time to time applicable to Chartered Legal Executives.

24. Where a Conveyancing Practitioner has failed to undertake CPD which meets the CPD Regulations or fails to provide a record of such CPD, the Officer will refer the matter to the Admissions and Licensing Committee. The Admissions and Licensing Committee will consider whether the Conveyancing Practitioner should retain their Conveyancing Certificate.
25. The Conveyancing Practitioner will have the opportunity to make written representations to the Committee and a right to be heard by the Committee.
26. The Committee may decide to:
 - Grant an extension of up to 3 months for the Conveyancing Practitioner to meet their outstanding CPD requirement. The Conveyancing Practitioner will still be required to meet their current CPD requirements in the normal way; or
 - Withdraw the Conveyancing Practice Certificate.
27. Where a Conveyancing Practitioner's Certificate has been withdrawn for 12 months or more, on the basis that they have not met their CPD requirements, they will be required to make a fresh application for a Conveyancing Certificate in accordance with the Rules.

DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES AND CODE OF CONDUCT

28. Conveyancing Practitioners will be required to abide by the Code of Conduct of CILEx for the time being in force. They will also be bound by the associated regulatory arrangements in force from time to time.

29. Where a complaint is made, or an issue is brought to the attention of CILEx Regulation, regarding the conduct of a Conveyancing Practitioner, that matter will be dealt with in accordance with CILEx's Investigation, Disciplinary and Appeals Rules. Where a finding, order or decision is made against a Conveyancing Practitioner, that finding, order or decision will be referred to the Admissions and Licensing Committee. The Admissions and Licensing Committee will decide whether the Conveyancing Practitioner remains a fit and proper person to hold a Conveyancing Certificate. The Admissions and Licensing Committee must give reasons for its decision.
30. Rule 29 shall not apply where an order is made excluding a Conveyancing Practitioner from registration of CILEx Regulation or membership of CILEx. In such a case the Conveyancing Practitioner's Certificate shall be invalid from the date the exclusion from membership or registration takes effect.
31. Where the Admissions and Licensing Committee decides that the Conveyancing Practitioner is no longer a fit and proper person to hold a Conveyancing Practice Certificate or their certificate is invalid in accordance with Rule 30, they must return their Certificate to CILEx Regulation within 28 days of being notified of the decision. Failure to do so will constitute a disciplinary offence. The Conveyancing Practitioner may not exercise any Conveyancing Practice rights granted to them under their certificate after they have been notified of the decision.
32. Notwithstanding the Admissions and Licensing Committee Rules an appeal against the decision of the Admissions and Licensing Committee that a Conveyancing Practitioner is no longer a fit and proper person to hold a Conveyancing Certificate will be considered by a professional member and 2 lay members drawn from the panel of lay and professional members appointed to serve on CILEx Regulation's appeals body.

Annex 1 - KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND EXPERIENCE GUIDELINES

1. An applicant who seeks conveyancing practice rights must satisfy the guidelines below.
2. An applicant seeking conveyancing practice rights must provide the following information in an application devised by CILEx Regulation:
 - A general outline of the conveyancing practice work they have carried out and the total experience they have gained of conveyancing practice;
 - Details of their typical caseload;
 - The number of chargeable hours they spent on conveyancing work;
 - The proportion or number of cases which they have handled;
 - Details of any distinctive features of their work; and
 - Details of any supervisory arrangements under which they work and their own supervisory responsibilities.
3. Applicants must demonstrate that they have the appropriate level of knowledge, experience and skills in conveyancing practice and land law to be awarded a Conveyancing Certificate in accordance with the criteria set out at Annex 3.

Competence Criteria

4. In deciding whether an applicant has adequate knowledge, skills and experience, CILEx Regulation will have regard to the competency framework set out at Annex 3.
5. Applicants will be required to demonstrate their knowledge, skills and experience in accordance with the portfolio guidelines and assessment criteria set out at Annex 2.
6. In their application, portfolios and logbooks, an applicant will be expected to demonstrate that they can:
 - Recognise and rank items and issues in terms of relevance and importance;
 - Integrate information and materials from a variety of different sources;
 - Undertake the analysis of information in a logical and coherent way;
 - Make critical judgements on the merits of particular courses of action;
 - Present and make a reasoned choice between alternative solutions;
 - Act independently in planning, preparing and undertaking tasks in conveyancing activities;
 - Undertake independent research in conveyancing practice using standard legal information sources; and
 - Reflect on their learning and make constructive use of feedback.

Evaluating Experience

7. An applicant will be expected to have a range of experience across the area in which they work. Applicants will be expected to have handled cases from the beginning to the end.
8. CILEx Regulation will consider the quality and quantity of experience that an applicant has gained. In considering the quality of experience, CILEx

Regulation will look at various factors such as the complexity of transactions handled, the nature of the transactions handled and the types of issues that have arisen within them.

9. CILEx Regulation will recognise that applicants could have had a break in their experience due to factors such as career breaks, job changes, maternity or paternity leave, long term illness, or disability. CILEx Regulation will not discriminate directly or indirectly against an applicant whose experience has been affected in this way. However, CILEx Regulation will need to ensure that an applicant has an acceptable level of experience.
10. Where an applicant has had a break in their experience, they may provide details of experience gained during a different period when they were more actively engaged in conveyancing practice. However, the break must not have been longer than 5 years. In exceptional circumstances, applications may be accepted from applicants who have had a break longer than 5 years.
11. There may be other factors which affect an applicant's experience in the preceding 2 years. CILEx Regulation will consider details of more active periods from applicants whose experience discloses a pattern that they regard as atypical.

Annex 2 - PORTFOLIO GUIDELINES AND ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

Introduction

1. An applicant seeking conveyancing practice rights must provide evidence of their:
 - Knowledge and understanding of the area of law in which they seek rights, demonstrated to CILEx Level 6 standard.
 - Knowledge and understanding of the area of practice in which they seek rights, demonstrated to CILEx Level 6 standard.
 - Evidence of their experience in the area of law in which they seek rights.
 - Skills in the legal practice area in which they seek rights.
2. Applicants must demonstrate their knowledge, skills and experience, set out at Rule 1, in accordance with the competency framework which appears at Annex 3.

Knowledge of Law and Legal Practice

3. An applicant who has successfully completed and passed an assessment in the CILEx Level 6 examinations in the law and associated legal practice subject relevant to the area in which they seek practice rights will have demonstrated their knowledge of the law and legal practice.
4. An applicant who has obtained a qualification which is not the CILEx Level 6 qualification, but of an equivalent standard, may rely upon that as evidence of their knowledge. In determining whether to accept an alternative qualification, CILEx Regulation will assess the syllabus of that qualification, date upon which the qualification was obtained and details of the assessment the applicant undertook, to determine whether an exemption may be granted. In assessing the details of the qualification, CILEx Regulation will determine whether the qualification relied upon is of an equivalent standard and covered at least 50% of the syllabus of the relevant CILEx Level 6 subject(s).

5. Where an applicant does not rely upon an alternative qualification, or the qualification is deemed as not providing sufficient coverage to the same standard as the CILEx Level 6 subject(s), they may rely upon experience which has developed their knowledge of the relevant law area and/or legal practice.
6. Applicants seeking to rely upon their experience must demonstrate how they have developed their knowledge of the relevant law and/or legal practice subject area(s) through their experience. Applicants will complete portfolios of 5 cases they have handled, within the 2 years preceding the date of their application, which demonstrate the knowledge they have gained through experience.
7. Applicants will be required to select a range of cases and provide an outline of the following in respect of each portfolio:
 - The facts of the case;
 - The law arising in the case and its application to the facts of the case;
 - The appropriate procedural and process matters that arose in the case and how they were dealt with;
 - The evidential issues that arose in the case and how they were dealt with;
 - An outline of any ethical or conduct issues that arose in the case and how they were dealt with;
 - The funding issues that arose in the case and how they were dealt with;
 - The advice the applicant provided to the client and the outcome of the matter;
 - Decisions the applicant had to make in the case and whether they had to take advice on any strategic issues in the case; and
 - Any training or development needs the applicant identified from having dealt with the case.

8. CILEx Regulation will assess the portfolios to establish whether they demonstrate that an applicant has acquired sufficient knowledge, through experience, to the same standard as the CILEx Level 6 in the subject. The knowledge gained must cover at least 50% of the syllabus of the CILEx Level 6 subject.
9. In making its assessment, CILEx Regulation will take into account the competence criteria set out at Annex 3 which outline the knowledge requirements for the relevant subject area.

Experience

10. All applicants must provide an outline of their experience in the area of practice in which they seek to become an authorised person for the purposes of conducting reserved legal activities.
11. Applicants must provide an outline of their experience in an application along with 3 portfolios of cases they have handled which demonstrate their experience.
12. The experience outlined in an application must set out the following information for the 2 years preceding the date of the application:
 - A description of cases that the applicant has handled;
 - A description of the applicant's typical case load, including details about the complexity of the case load and a summary of any difficult cases the applicant has handled;
 - The number of chargeable hours spent on the practice area in which rights are sought;
 - The proportion of time spent on that area of law;
 - A description of the range and nature of matters that the applicant has handled in the area of practice in which rights are sought;
 - Details of any distinctive features of the applicant's work; and

- Details of any supervisory arrangements under which the applicant works and any supervisory responsibilities they have.
13. An applicant will be required to produce portfolios of 3 cases which demonstrate their experience in the area in which rights are sought.
14. In the portfolios, applicants must provide the following information:
- The facts of the case;
 - The law arising in the case and its application to the facts of the case;
 - The procedural and process matters that arose in the case and how they were dealt with;
 - The evidential issues that arose in the case and how they were dealt with;
 - Any ethical or conduct issues that arose in the case and how they were dealt with;
 - The funding issues that arose in the case and how they were dealt with;
 - The advice the applicant provided to the client and the outcome of the case;
 - Decisions that the applicant had to make in the case, including whether they had to take advice on any strategic issues; and
 - Any training or development needs that the applicant identified from having dealt with the case.
15. CILEx Regulation will assess the outline of experience provided in the application, along with the 3 portfolios. The assessment will consider whether the applicant meets the experience requirements set out in the competency framework at Annex 3.

Skills

16. An applicant must provide evidence of their skills in the area in which they seek reserved legal activity rights in accordance with the skills criteria for each practice and law area which appear at Annex 3.

17. An applicant may demonstrate their skills through either undertaking a skills course which meets the outcomes set out at Annex 3, or producing a log of their experience which demonstrates their skills.
18. Where an applicant seeks to rely upon a course, they must demonstrate that the course meets the outcomes set out at Annex 3.
19. An applicant who seeks to rely upon their experience as evidence of their skills must demonstrate that they meet each of the outcomes set out at Annex 3 through the production of a log book and supporting evidence. Applicants will be required to evidence in the log book the outcome that has been met and reflect upon how the outcome was met. Each outcome must be met at least once.
20. CILEx Regulation will assess the log and supporting evidence provided by applicants to determine whether an applicant has demonstrated that they meet the skills criteria set out at Annex 3.

Practice management and accounts

21. An applicant who relies upon their existing practical experience of practice management and accounts must provide evidence of their knowledge, skills and experience of accounts and practice management in accordance with the competency criteria which appear at Annexes 4 and 5.
22. An applicant must demonstrate their knowledge, skills and experience through producing a log which demonstrates that they meet each of the outcomes set out at Annexes 4 and 5. The log must be supported by evidence. Applicants will be required to evidence in the log book the outcome that has been met and reflect upon how the outcome was met. Each outcome must be met at least once.

23. CILEx Regulation will assess the log and supporting evidence provided by applicants to determine whether an applicant has demonstrated that they meet the competency requirements set out at Annexes 4 and 5.
