FoI request (Ref: 20201230-01)

Thank you for your request for information from the Legal Services Board (“the LSB”) in relation to “...copies of all the legal aid forms that was sent in to you in my name...” Your request was received on 30 December 2020.

We have considered your request and I can confirm that the LSB does not hold information in relation to your request. The LSB is not the body that administers legal aid: responsibility for that sits with the Legal Aid Agency. You may want to redirect your request to the Legal Aid Agency directly, whose contact details are set out on their website:
<https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/legal-aid-agency/contact/legal-aid-agency-customer-services>.

If you are dissatisfied with this response to your request for information, you have the right to ask for an internal review / to submit a complaint (see LSB’s Freedom of information – Complaints procedure).

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome of your complaint, you may refer the matter to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Please be aware that the Commissioner will be unlikely to make a decision until you have been through our internal complaints procedure first. You can write to the Commissioner at:
